The Dell House, Malvern Wells, Worcestershire, England

Enjoy a Self-Catering Holiday in our 4 Star Holiday Homes,

The Dell House nestles on the sheltered slopes of The Malvern Hills and has wonderful views across the Severn Valley to the distant Cotswolds. Built in the late Regency period, The Dell House has two hillside acres of naturalised wooded grounds — and plentiful uplifting charm!

Self-Catering - The Coach House, The Old Nursery and The Butler's Apartments are our three Self-catering Holiday Homes. They have been beautifully converted from the Victorian former servants' quarters which surround the cobbled courtyard at the rear of this unusual and historic Regency house.

The Dell House is easy to find — we are close to the A449 in Malvern Wells and just twenty minutes from the M5 Junction 7 or the M50 Junctions 1 or 2.

The Dell House is a wonderful base for your holiday. There is direct access to the Malvern Hills' footpaths from our gates. The Three Counties Showground (The Malvern Showground) is just down the lane. The historic cities of Worcester, Hereford, Tewkesbury and Gloucester are within an easy drive, as are The Cotswolds. The world famous Morgan Cars are hand-built in Malvern Link. The Malvern Theatres feature famous names and top class productions just 10 minutes from our house. There are a host of excellent restaurants and, of course, the renowned Malvern Water and our ancient healing wells and springs.

The Dell House is a perfect place to holiday — at any time of the year!

The Coach House

Converted from the Victorian stable block, this charming two-storey cottage is separate from the main house and has two good sized bedrooms upstairs. The main bedroom has a standard-double pine-framed bed and the family bedroom has standard double and single pine-frame beds. The pretty tiled bathroom has a bath/shower and WC. Downstairs there is a cosy open plan living-dining room with really comfy seating, table & chairs and a gas-log fire. The country pine fitted kitchen has blue & white china, an electric oven and gas hob, fridge-freezer, microwave, washing machine and a quarry tiled floor. Price includes all gas & electricity. Pets by arrangement. Sleeps 5.

The Butler's Apartment

This cosy one-bedroom ground-floor apartment, formerly the butler's pantry and staff quarters, was extensively renovated in December 2006. "Butler's" is very spacious with a wide internal hall and doorways making it ideal for guests who can't manage stairs or prefer to be on the ground floor. There is one step to the front door into the kitchen/breakfast-room but no further steps within the apartment. The bedroom has a fine Edwardian inlaid mahogany standard size double bed and a Art Deco walnut dressing table. The cosy sitting room has very comfy seating with TV/DVD & CD/radio. The spacious bathroom has a WC, and a bath with thermostatic shower. The farmhouse-oak fitted kitchen/ breakfast room has an electric oven, gas hob, fridge-freezer, microwave, ceramic tiled floor, kitchen table and chairs. Guests may use a washing machine in The Dell House on request. Price includes all gas and electricity. Pets by arrangement. Sleeps 2.

The Old Nursery

Converted from the first-floor former children's nurseries and extensively renovated in March 2007, this is an extremely spacious two/three bedroom apartment occupying the whole upper floor of the wing of the Main House. The main bedroom has a standard double divan- bed and vanity basin while the versatile family room has one or two pine framed standard single beds and a king size double divan- bed that converts to twin small-singles. The blue and white bathroom has a bath, thermostatic shower and WC. There is also a separate cloakroom with WC and hand-basin. The double-aspect sitting room very comfy seating and views to the Hill and gardens. The separate dining room/optional bedroom 3 (single) looks over the garden. The pretty kitchen is fitted with white units, blue & white china, an electric oven with gas hob, fridge-freezer, microwave and a washing machine. The apartment is accessed from own ground floor front door leading to the private internal staircase to the first floor. Price includes all gas and electricity.

Sleeps up to 6. We regret that pets are not accepted in this apartment.
